

SHUTTLESPOORT/DOUGLAS COLLEGE BADMINTON ACADEMY

- Want to learn Badminton?
- Want to improve your Badminton skills?
- Want to be part of a team?

Then the Shuttlesport/Douglas College Badminton Academy is for you. Badminton programs begin January 22, 2008. This Academy is based out of Glenbrook School, located at 701 Park Crescent, New Westminster.

The Academy is run under the direction of Performance Director Arif (Al) Mawani and assisted by a group of certified coaches who work under his supervision. Currently, Al is the head Coach for both the Douglas College and BC Badminton teams. In addition, he is the Performance Director for the Shuttlesport/Douglas College Badminton Academy in Coquitlam. He has experience coaching at the International level, has developed National Champions, coached British Columbia to the Gold medal at the 2003 Western Canada Summer Games & 2007 Canada Winter Games. Al has coached several National titles with Douglas College to go with his five time coach of the year honors.

The Shuttle 1 Junior Development Program will be offered on Tuesdays. The program is a fun way to develop proper technique and learn the game of badminton. It meets the needs of both the beginner and competitive player. Class sizes are small and grouped according to ability. Children sign up according to age and move through the levels with improvement. Each practice consists of instruction followed by various game formats. A fun ladder will be run for all participants. Prizes will be given out.
